

CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR:

THROUGH : Head of Career Service

SUBJECT : Notification of Non-eligibility for Designation as a Participant in the CIA Retirement and Disability System

25X1A

1. A review has been conducted to determine your eligibility for designation as a participant in the CIA Retirement and Disability System in accordance with the provisions of [REDACTED]. It has been determined that you do not meet the criteria described in that Regulation for designation as a participant at this time. Paragraph e of [REDACTED] sets forth the specific requirements that an employee must meet in order to qualify for designation as a participant in the System, and Paragraph 5 of Employee Bulletin dated _____, entitled: Public Law 88-643 "The Central Intelligence Agency Retirement Act of 1964 for Certain Employees" further explains the meaning of "qualifying service". You may want to refer to these paragraphs in connection with my determination in this instance.

2. The Head of your Career Service is aware of this determination and any questions concerning your non-eligibility for designation as a participant may be directed to appropriate officials of your Career Service.

3. As provided in [REDACTED] you are notified of your right to submit an appeal of this determination to the Director of Central Intelligence. Such appeal must be received in that Office within 30 calendar days from the date of this memorandum. This is a routine notice that is technically required by the regulation governing this retirement system and, unless you desire to submit an appeal, there is nothing you need do.
